

Dr. Sanjay Debnath, the Head Administration of O. P. Jindal School, Raigarh is a seasoned management professional with several years of vast experience in school administration, with his rich educational qualification MBA - Marketing, HR, M. Phil in Physical Education, MA-Sociology, NIS (ATHLETICS) & DCS. He has authored books on 'Physical Education' too. Dr. Debnath joined O. P. Jindal School as an Administrator in August 2003. His sincere working of long years in all functional areas of administrative fields in OPJS, Raigarh has been contributing in bringing laurels to the school in various fields. His compassionate and effective working in area of administration makes all assimilating and learning processes fruitful in school. He has a professional experience of more than two decades in the educational set ups. Dr. Debnath has been assigned the task to manage all administrative aspects of OPJS, Raigarh including office protocols & administrative procedures, to control a huge team of teachers and non-teaching staff, report of daily activities, customer relationship with external stakeholders, supervision and providing solution in all housekeeping, sports, and internal as well as external school activities. His leadership & support to all administrative aspects in school have always emerged as an example for others which make him integral to the school. Dr. Debnath's ideology is to incorporate the best practices of school administration with utmost outcome in terms of quality education and nurturing the future citizens of our country. Besides being a jovial human being, he is a great motivator too.