When Thomas was fifteen, he was a very intelligent and generous boy. He spent his day only reading, eating, and sleeping. Other than that, he didn't do anything. When the teachers of his class asked him any question, he would answer it very immediately.

He always kept himself away from social activities, but once when he was going to his school, he saw a very old man begging on the roadside.

At first, he thought that he should stop there and ask him why he was begging because he was too old to do that, instead, he should rest. At the same time, he realized that if he stopped there, he would be late for school.

He thought for a while and went to the old man. He saw that everyone was passing by him but no one was giving him alms. After seeing the incident, he took out twenty rupees from his pocket and gave them to the beggar. By doing that, he felt very good and reached the school gasping.

The Tree Man of Tamil Nadu Marimuthu Yoganathan is a man with a mission. He meets school children daily and with the help of a slide show, he introduces them to the beauty of trees. He has hundreds of photographs of trees that the children get to see on a daily basis, but rarely notice. Then, together, they plant a sapling. Read this conversation to know how Yoganathan engages children in planting saplings.

'Will this one grow to be a big tree, like the one you showed us?' asks Mani. 'Ofcourse, it will,' says Yoganathan, 'provided you look after it.' Then comes the question Yoganathan has been waiting for. 'Can I plant one?' asks Rekha. Smiling, he hands her a sapling from the crate he has been carrying with him. 'Take good care of it. It will make you happy!' Then he writes the girl's name and phone number in a worn notebook. 'I will call you and find out how our friend is doing under your care,' he says. Soon more children will volunteer and take care of their saplings. Yoganathan is happy. These children will witness the miracle of life - a tender plant growing into a spreading tree! And surely, this experience will make them friends of trees. What Yoganathan is doing is in itself a miracle. A bus conductor for over past twenty odd years, he has planted over a lakh trees in Tamil Nadu. It was not easy. He faced ridicule and was beaten up when he protested against the rampant felling of trees by the timber mafia. Funds were scarce and still are. So, he lays aside forty per cent of his salary for this labour of love. In 2010, the Indian Government honoured him with the Eco Warrior Award. He is glad and happy to have been honoured for his work. But the award and the media attention that followed has not changed him. True to his nature, he will always be the 'Tree Man of Tamil Nadu!'
